District Deputy Grand Master Magee and S. A. Thomason, noble grand of Salem Lodge No. 100, I. O. O. F., went to Elliston last night to meet a number of the citizens of that town in the Masonic hall there with the idea of forming an Odd Fellows lodge at that place.

After the meeting of the subordinate lodge Tuesday night Salem Encampment held a meeting and elected the following officers: A. H. Magee, chief patriarch; C. C. Oakley, senior warden; A. Thomason, high priest; S. A. Walters, junior warden; W. F. Francis, treasurer; W. M. Harnitz, scribe.

A representative of a sensational weekly paper published at Harrisburg, Pa., was in Salem yesterday for a few hours on business connected with her paper. A copy of the last issue, containing an account of the Kennerly scandal, was shown to Mayor Younger who after carefully reading it, remarked that he saw nothing in it to prohibit its sale, nor did the account in that paper vary much from that published in the Roanoke papers, and he was sure he had seen much worse matter in the New York World. The newsboys sold a number of this issue of the paper in Salem and whilst the citizens who read it all condemn Kennerly in the strongest terms for his outrageous conduct, none of them can see why such a strong effort has seemingly been made to cover up his sin or screen his misdeeds.

Tuesday night Deputy Sheriff Lloyd received a telegram from the sheriff of Bedford county ordering him to summons the following citizens of Salem to report in Bedford City Wednesday morning, in order that a jury might be selected from their number to try ex-County Treasurer Arthur for embezzlement: W. These were duly summoned and reported at Bedford City as directed, but soon after their arrival the Messrs. W. R. and F. W. Whitescarver and O. D. Oakley were excused on account of illness in their family, and returned home on the afternoon train. Ten more are expected home this morning.

Try it and be convinced. It won't disappoint. Free trial bottles at Christian & Barbee's.
